APPLICATIONS WILL BE ACCEPTED FROM: (a) Present and former Federal employees with competitive status who reside within the Washington DC commuting area, OR (b) Veterans who are preference eligibles or who have been separated from the armed forces under honorable conditions after 3 years or more of continuous active service.

Please note that: YOU MUST SPECIFICALLY AND SEPERATELY ADDRESS:

(A) EACH of the EVALUATION CRITERIA described in Section II of the announcement.

(B) Any SELECTIVE FACTOR (If indicated in Section I)

IF THESE ARE NOT ADDRESSED YOUR APPLICATION WILL BE INCOMPLETE AND YOU WILL NOT BE CONSIDERED.

SUMMARY OF DUTIES:

This position is for the Deputy Assistant Director, Office of Liaison Services in the Analysis and Liaison Division of the Financial Crimes Enforcement Network (FinCEN). The incumbent participates in the direction of programs that facilitate the investigation of alleged or suspected violations against the laws of the United States, specifically money laundering, terrorist financing, and the financing of criminal activity. This work requires knowledge of what constitutes a crime, the kind of evidence required to prove a crime was committed, the relationship among criminal investigative jurisdictions of various agencies, sources of information, the methods and patterns of criminal activity, and awareness of advances in investigative technology.

The Deputy Assistant Director participates in planning and managing programs that conduct analyses of cases or, as appropriate, refer cases for investigation and provide a venue for and enable representatives of law enforcement and intelligence agencies to utilize Bank Secrecy Act data to identify money laundering and other financial transfers that support terrorism or criminal activity. Programs provided to users include on and off-site training, analytical assistance, utilization of FinCEN facilities, selection of and access to databases, and technical assistance. Program management involves oversight to assure BSA data security, authorized and appropriate use of FinCEN provided database access.

This is a SECONDARY law enforcement officer (LEO) position, as defined in 5CFR §831.902, under the early law enforcement retirement provisions of 5 USC 8336 (c) and 5 USC 8412 (d), in that it is in the law enforcement field, is in an organization having a law enforcement mission, and involves administrative responsibilities for which prior experience in a primary law enforcement position (or equivalent) is a prerequisite.

BENEFITS

FinCEN offers flexible work schedules, a comprehensive leave program, 10 paid holidays, financial assistance to employees who use public transportation to commute, in-house training, reimbursement for approved outside training, telework opportunities, and eligibility for performance awards. FinCEN also offers attractive health, life, and long-term care insurance programs, and the employee's health insurance contributions are out of pre-tax dollars. Newer employees are covered by a three-tier retirement plan that includes a pre-tax retirement contribution program with matching funds or, as applicable, continuance in the Civil Service Retirement System. The office is located in a modern commercial building with a health unit and a fitness center (employees pay fitness center fee). The Vienna office has free parking and shuttle service to and from the Dunn Loring Metro station. All employees are assigned individual state-of-the-art computers.

SECTION I: MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS REQUIREMENTS TO BE CONSIDERED FOR THIS POSITION:

Selective Factor: Applicants must have successfully completed the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center (FLETC) - Criminal Investigator Training Program or the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) Academy - Criminal Investigator Training Program. (Applicant must indicate in their application the training program that was attended and the dates of attendance.)

Specialized Experience: Applicants must have one year of specialized experience at or equivalent to the GS-14 level that provided:

- Expert knowledge of what constitutes a crime, the kind of evidence required to prove a crime was committed, the relationship among criminal investigative jurisdictions of various agencies, sources of information, the methods and patterns of criminal activity, and awareness of advances in investigative technology;
- Knowledge of investigatory efforts related to the identification of money laundering, terrorist financing, and the financing of criminal activity, both on a domestic and international scope; and

Experience in administering programs that involve extensive liaison, planning, oversight and the production of program materials.

Supervisory Requirements: This is a supervisory position. Applicants must have demonstrated in their work experience or training that they possess, or have the potential to develop, the quality of successful supervision.

Selective Service Registration: If selected, male applicants born after December 31, 1959, must certify that they have registered with the Selective Service System or are exempt from having to do so.

SECTION II: APPLICANTS WHO MEET MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS REQUIREMENTS WILL BE RATED UNDER THE FOLLOWING "EVALUATION CRITERIA":

1. Experience in conducting complex criminal investigations relevant to FinCEN's mission to detect and prevent against money laundering, terrorist financing, and financing of criminal activities. (Applicants must describe their relevant experience.)
2. Broad and insightful knowledge of FinCEN's interactions with and services to its clients in the law enforcement, intelligence and regulatory communities to include the type of research and analysis conducted by FinCEN and its clients. (Applicants must address their experience that provided knowledge of the research and analysis of BSA and related databases conducted by FinCEN and its clients.)
3. Experience in conducting liaison with senior officials or experience of working in the field (i.e. in Federal, state and local law enforcement, intelligence, and/or regulatory agencies) concerning issues related to money laundering and financial crimes, requiring the ability to establish cooperative relations, negotiate sensitive issues, and develop agreements. (Applicants must describe their experience in conducting such liaison.)
4. Demonstrated ability to develop written products that include policies, agreements, guidance materials, analyses, and correspondence related to the use and dissemination of Bank Secrecy Act information and the safety and security of our nation's financial system. (Applicants must describe their experience in developing these types of written products.)
5. Ability to recommend selections, develop and provide supervision of senior staff involved in anti money laundering and financial crime activities, including setting priorities; approving work products; evaluating performance; recommending promotions, awards, and reassignments; and dealing with performance and conduct issues. (Applicants must describe their experience in providing such technical and administrative supervision.)
6. Knowledge or experience which demonstrates the ability to: (1) effectively implement federal equal employment opportunity policies, principles, and objectives; and (2) promote cultural and diversity awareness in the workplace. (Please address your work-related experience, training, and personal experiences in regards to this factor.)

DO NOT use one narrative statement to address all of the evaluation criteria. Each criteria MUST be addressed separately and reflect your specific experience/education that you feel equips you with the knowledge, skills, and abilities to perform the duties of the position for which you are applying.

Basis of Rating:

- Applicants will first be reviewed to determine if they meet the minimum qualification requirements in Section I.
- Those who do will be evaluated as to how well they meet the evaluation criteria in Section II.
- Applicants MUST provide detailed information related to the evaluation criteria in their application package in the form of clear, concise examples showing level of accomplishment and degree of responsibility.
- Applicants MUST address each of the evaluation criteria separately and attach it to their application/resume.

APPLICATIONS THAT DO NOT SPECIFICALLY ADDRESS EACH OF THE EVALUATION CRITERIA WILL BE CONSIDERED AS INCOMPLETE AND WILL NOT RECEIVE FURTHER CONSIDERATION.
